

Hearing from the People

Rural Alaska Behavioral Health

December 1st, 2010 3:30 to 6:00

The Rural Behavioral Health forum asks for rural Alaska's input. This is an opportunity for different communities to present to the State Legislature and appropriate agencies about the behavioral health issues your communities would like to bring to the forefront. Don't miss this chance to present to state agencies what programs work, what don't, or offer new strategies that may be more effective in your communities. Communities are expected to make a presentation at an interactive public video teleconference. Call these numbers for more information: 1-800-922-3875. Representative Sharon Cissna's Office at 907-269-0190, or Senator Donald Olson's office at 907-269-0254.

Fairbanks and Juneau LIO offices for video teleconference attendance:
Anchorage Legislative Information Office, 716 West 4th Ave. Rm 220 &
Cooperative Extension Service, 1675 C Street, Anchorage, Alaska 99501.
